5.	Name and location of high school attending:
6.	A. List any academic honors, awards and membership activities while in high school: B. List your hobbies, outside interests, extracurricular activities and school related volunteer activities: C. List your non-school sponsored volunteer activities in the community: *You may add additional activities on a blank sheet and attach to application
7.	Please list the college/university you plan to attend or college(s) you have applied to: List major and/or career interest you plan to pursue:
8.	Two letters of recommendation are required – 1 letter is to be written by a current/former teacher, counselor, or principal and 1 letter is to be written by a community contact (church, volunteer organizations or employer); please list the names, contact number and title of references below: A. B.

9. Please type a 1,500 – 2,000 word essay, selecting only ONE (1) of the following questions listed below:

1. Texas Senate Bill 17 (SB17), signed into law in 2023, restricts Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) programs at public universities. In light of this recent change, explore how your views on postsecondary education may have evolved. Discuss how the law and its impact on DEI initiatives may have influenced your decision-making process. Consider how these developments have shaped your educational and career goals, and what factors now play a role in guiding your path forward in higher education.

2. American citizens are at a critical crossroads between being allowed to maintain their Second Amendment rights and ensuring the right to be safe in public spaces. Explore the challenges and potential solutions to balancing gun rights with the need for public safety. Consider the role of policy, public opinion, and recent events in shaping this ongoing debate.

3. Black artistry has significantly influenced American culture in the areas of music, fine arts, dance, fashion and more. While black artists have been considered innovators, they have often achieved less financial success and public acclaim than white counterparts who are inspired by, emulate, imitate or appropriate those same styles of creativity. Explore the history of this dynamic with specific examples and consider the causes and impact of this phenomenon.

4. Reflecting on the United Healthcare shooting, explore why many Americans expressed sympathy toward the shooter. What are the potential implications—both positive and negative—of this type of sympathy? Additionally, explore whether universal healthcare could address some of the healthcare disparities, particularly for African Americans, that contribute to negative perceptions of the healthcare industry.

APPENDIX B9

VIRTUAL MEETING/EVENT PARTICIPANT AGREEMENT

I, _____ (“Parent/Guardian”), as a parent or legal guardian of _____, give permission for Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated (the Sorority) and the Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated (the Chapter), to host and facilitate closed virtual meetings/events using Zoom (“the Virtual Meeting Platform”), that my/our child will attend during participation in the Youth Initiative Program activities, without payment or any consideration and without notifying me in advance and hereby acknowledge, understand, and agree to the terms enumerated below, including the terms set forth on any Schedules attached hereto and incorporated by reference (the "Participant Agreement").

I also understand that the Virtual Meeting Platform may collect information about its users and has its own privacy terms and conditions to which users must adhere. I will be responsible for reviewing the virtual meeting platform’s privacy terms and conditions before registering for virtual meetings/events.

I also understand that my/our child will need the following to participate in a virtual meeting platform.

- A computer, mobile, or tablet device with access to the Internet
- A quiet space in which participants can participate in the virtual meeting/event under the supervision of an adult
- Registration for the virtual meeting/event platform and provide some customer data (including but not limited to an email address, first and last name, etc.)

I also understand, acknowledge and agree to indemnify, defend, protect and hold harmless the Chapter and any of its officers and members; and the Sorority and any of its officers; National Executive Board; employees; members; representatives; agents; and assigns from and against any and all liability, whether in law or in equity, should there a breach of security of the Virtual Meeting Platform and any subsequent injury, malice, or harm that might occur as a result, and waive and release any and all rights with respect to the same.

YOUTH INITIATIVE VIRTUAL MEETING/EVENT PARTICIPANT AGREEMENT

I hereby hold harmless and release and forever discharge the Chapter and any of its officers and members; and the Sorority; its officers; National Executive Board, employees; members; representatives; agents; and assigns from any and all claims, costs, suits, actions, judgments, and expenses which my child, his/her heirs, representatives, executors, administrators, or any other persons acting on his/her behalf have or may have by reason of the use of the Virtual Meeting Platform as a venue for meetings or events. This release specifically includes, without limitation, a complete release and discharge of any liability by virtue of any editing, distortion, alteration, or optical illusion, whether intentional or otherwise, that may occur or be produced in the taking of or editing of said images and content of the virtual meeting/event unless it can be shown that such was maliciously caused, produced and published solely for the purpose of subjecting my child to conspicuous ridicule, scandal, reproach, scorn, and indignity.

I hereby certify that I/we are the parents/guardians and are authorized legally to give this consent, and do hereby give my/our consent without reservation to the foregoing on behalf of my/our child.

I have fully read and understand the Code of Conduct (attached hereto as Schedule 1). I understand that my child's compliance with the Code of Conduct is a condition of her/his participation in the program. I further acknowledge, understand, and agree that the sanctions for violating the Code of Conduct are reasonable and should my child be non-complaint, they will be subject to the prescribed disciplinary action.

I also give permission for the Chapter and the Sorority to highlight my/our child's achievements and activities in efforts to promote the youth initiative program through the Virtual Meeting Platform that will include the use of still photographs, moving images or live images, and chats including, if applicable any sound recordings accompanying the images ("Images") taken of my/our child or provided by my/our child during participation in Youth Initiative Program in accordance with the terms set forth in the Media and Publication Releases (attached hereto as Schedule 2).

APPENDIX B11

CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

It is the policy of the local Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated (the "Chapter") to protect the confidentiality of its youth participants and their families. Except as provided below, the Chapter will only share information about participants and their families with other Delta Chapter members and Delta employees assigned to assist with youth initiative programs, on a "need to know basis."

To carry out the mission of its youth program and to better serve needs of the youth participants, the Chapter must collect certain personal information about youth participants and their families, including, but not limited to, the following "Confidential Information":

- Name and address of participant AND parents or guardian
- Participant age and school
- Medical conditions / physical limitations
- Any distinguishing marks or characteristics (such as tattoos or birthmarks)

Limits of Confidentiality: Confidential information may be shared with individuals or organizations as specified below under the following conditions, and provided that the party who seeks any disclosure agrees in writing to maintain the confidentiality of the disclosed information as specified in this Confidentiality Policy:

- Delta Officers and Members of the Board have access to any participant's files only upon directive by the National President. Any directive shall identify the person(s) authorized to review such records; the specific purpose for such review; and the period during which access shall be granted. Such Officers or Members of the Board granted access shall be required to comply with this Confidentiality Policy and may use the information only for purposes specified in the National President's directive.
- Information may only be provided to law enforcement officials or the courts pursuant to a valid and enforceable subpoena or court order.
- Information may be provided to Delta's legal counsel in the event of litigation or potential litigation involving Delta and/or the Program participants or any aspect of the Program.
- Members of the Chapter and volunteers who observe or suspect child abuse are "mandatory reporters" and, as such, must disclose suspected abuse to the proper authorities, and in making such reports, may disclose "Confidential Information."

Safekeeping of Confidential Records: The President of the Chapter or her designee shall be the custodian of confidential records. It is her responsibility to supervise the management of Confidential Information to ensure safekeeping, accuracy, accountability, and compliance with this Confidentiality Policy.

Requests for Confidential Information by Other Agencies: Any request from other organizations or persons for Confidential Information shall be honored only if the request is accompanied by written authorization from the parents or guardians of the youth participant expressly permitting the release of the requested information.

Violations of Confidentiality: Known violations of this Confidentiality Policy (by volunteers or youth participants) shall be reported to the Chapter President or her designee. A violation of this Confidentiality Policy shall result in disciplinary action up to and including suspension or termination from the Program, as appropriate.

No Liability: There shall be no liability to the Chapter, or any volunteer or youth participant for disclosing information that is required to be disclosed by a court, an administrative body of competent jurisdiction, a governmental agency, or by operation of law.

APPENDIX B13
INTERNET YOUTH POLICY

1. Purpose

This policy relates to the use of computers or Internet access through, during, or as part of any Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated (“Delta”) Youth Initiative Program (“Program”) or sponsored event. The purpose of the policy is to protect the participating youth from gaining access to undesirable materials on the Internet; from making undesirable contacts over the Internet; and to prevent unacceptable use of the Internet by youth participants, including, but not limited to, using the Internet for cyber- bullying. The focus of the policy is on both personal and shared responsibility.

2. Definitions and Illustrative Examples

A. Examples of Prohibited Materials

- Pornographic images or obscene images or text on Internet websites.
- Material that contains abusive, profane, inflammatory, coercive, defamatory, blasphemous, or otherwise offensive language on websites or in e-mail messages.
- Racist, exploitative, or illegal material or messages on websites or in e-mail.

B. Examples of Prohibited Contacts

- Responding to e-mail messages or solicitations (through advertisements or web postings) from unknown or unverified parties who seek to establish a youth’s identity and/or to communicate with the youth for any purpose.
- Initiating contact with unknown or unverified parties or parties seeking to contact youth for any purposes.

C. Examples of Prohibited Contacts

- Deliberately searching for and accessing prohibited materials.
- Creating and transmitting e-mail messages that contain unacceptable language or content, such as that listed above in 2A, bullet 2; and
- Creating and publishing Internet materials that contain unacceptable language and content.

D. Examples of Cyber-bullying

Cyber-bullying includes, but is not limited to, the following misuses of technology: harassing, teasing, intimidating, threatening, or terrorizing another individual by way of any technological tool, such as sending or posting inappropriate or derogatory email messages, instant messages, text messages, digital pictures or images, or website postings which has the effect of:

- Physically, emotionally, or mentally harming an individual.
- Placing an individual in reasonable fear of physical, emotional, or mental harm.
- Placing an individual in reasonable fear of damage to or loss of personal property; or
- Creating an intimidating or hostile environment that substantially interferes with an individual’s educational opportunities.

INTERNET USE POLICY

3. Unintentional Exposure of Youth to Prohibited Materials on the Internet

It is Delta's policy that Chapters must undertake every reasonable step to prevent exposure of youth participants to undesirable materials on the Internet. It is recognized that this can happen not only through the youth deliberately searching for such materials, but also unintentionally when a justifiable Internet search yields unexpected results.

To prevent such occurrences the Chapter shall adopt the following practices:

A. Chapters should use an Internet Provider or software that blocks access by:

- Filtering sites by a grading process, and
- Filtering sites by language content and prohibit sites with unacceptable vocabulary.

B. Chapters must strictly supervise Internet usage:

- Adults must strictly supervise youth participant's Internet activity, and there should be no searching of the Internet without a supervisor checking periodically during use and reviewing the sites accessed after a youth logs off.
- Install appropriate language filtering software (e.g., Net Nanny).

4. Intentional Access of Prohibited Materials by Youth

Chapters shall explain clearly and firmly to the youth that they are prohibited from intentionally accessing prohibited material on the Internet. The youth also must be informed that if she/he violates this policy, she/he will be disciplined, and her/his Parents or Guardian will be notified. Chapters must follow through with disciplining the youth and notifying the Parents or Guardians.

5. Deliberate Access to Prohibited Materials by Adults

Adults are prohibited from deliberately accessing prohibited materials. Any adult who violates this policy will be terminated as a volunteer.

6. Receipt and transmission of e-mails by youth

It is recognized that, even with training and supervision, youth may receive or transmit e-mail messages that contain unacceptable (or even prohibited) language or content. It is also recognized that some people may try to use e-mail to identify and contact children for unacceptable reasons.

To avoid these problems, Chapters should adopt the following practices:

- A. Use an Internet e-mail service that guarantees the bona-fide nature of e-mail communicants and that vets youth's e-mail for undesirable content.
- B. Depending on the circumstances and the age or maturity of the youth, allow youth to read e-mail messages only when an adult is present or when the messages have been previewed by an adult.
- C. Take steps to verify the identity of anyone seeking to establish regular e-mail communications with youth.
- D. Allow youth to send e-mail messages only when the contents have been approved by an adult.

INTERNET USE POLICY

If staff or volunteers believe that youth have been targeted with e-mail messages by parties with criminal or inappropriate intent, immediately take the following steps: retain the messages; record the incident by completing the Risk Management incident Report form; inform the youth's Parents; report the incident to law enforcement or other local or state authorities, and report the incident to the Chapter President and the Regional Director.

7. Publishing Materials on the Internet

No materials, whether created by volunteers or youth participants, that contain any prohibited images, language, or content shall be published on the Internet. Infringement of this rule shall result in disciplinary action.

No materials shall be published on the Internet that reveals the identity of any youth.

8. Use of Delta's Internet by Visitors and Guests

No visitor or guest shall be allowed to use any Delta computer.

9. Intellectual Property Rights

A. Delta's Intellectual Property. No individual member owns any of Delta's intellectual property (which includes any Delta logo, word(s), or phrase(s) commonly associated with, and understood to refer to, Delta, and the "look" of any Mark used to distinguish merchandise and service as being associated with or related to Delta. Thus, no member is authorized to use such property for any inappropriate or any commercial purpose (i.e., to make money from using the property or to promote other causes), or to authorize any third party to use Delta's intellectual property for any purpose. See Delta's Code of Conduct, Social Media Guidelines, and Primer on the Use of the Intellectual Property of Delta.

B. Third Parties' Intellectual Property Rights. All materials on the Internet are copyrighted and/or trademarked unless copyright has been expressly waived. Delta respects the intellectual property rights (copyright, trademarks, service marks, and related rights) of third-party owners Internet materials, and Delta assumes no liability for violations of any intellectual property rights by volunteers or youth participants.

10. Parental Approval of Publication of Photographs or Other Materials

Chapters may publish photographs of youth participants on the Internet only if the Parent or Guardian has granted authorization. Depending on the nature and content, other materials may be published so long as the Parent or Guardian has given written consent. Delta must obtain the signed Photograph, Media, and Video Authorization Form from the Parents/Guardians of a youth before publishing any content that includes images of a youth participant (Appendix B2).
