Jabberwock History

The Jabberwock is a fundraising event dedicated to scholarships and public service programs. It was originally conceived as a unique way to raise funds for scholarships. "Jabberwock," copyrighted by Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., is inspired by Lewis Carroll's poem "Jabberwocky" from Alice's Adventures in Wonderland. In the poem, creatures from across the kingdom gather annually for a grand pageant.

The inaugural Jabberwock was held in 1925 in Boston, Massachusetts, by members of the Iota Chapter as a new method of raising money for their scholarship fund. Originally envisioned as a musical variety show featuring skits and dances, the Jabberwock has evolved into a more diverse program that continues to raise funds for scholarships.

Historically, Jabberwock funds were designated for scholarships awarded by the sponsoring chapter to promising youth and for public service projects. Today, the event represents an evening of sophistication and entertainment, highlighting the accomplishments of young women while furthering the goals of Delta's scholarship program.

Participants in the Jabberwock are high school seniors. Each participant is encouraged to engage in fundraising activities to compete for the title of Miss Jabberwock and the associated scholarship funds. The Jabberwock Scholarship Presentation is scheduled for tentative, March 29th.
